

THE DIGITAL ART OF THE POSSIBLE AGENDA

Morning session

Time	Plenary area
08:30 – 09:15	Registration, refreshments and exhibition hall open
09:15 – 09:20	Deborah Evans, Managing Director, West of England AHSN
09:20 – 09:50	Deborah El-Sayed, Director of Digital & Multi-Channel Development NHS England
09:50 – 10:20	Understanding health &amp; care priorities, successes and challenges – Viewpoints from the West of England Dr Mike Taylor, CCIO for Connecting Care Dr Paul Atkinson, Chief Clinical Information Officer, Gloucestershire CCG Kevin Marshall, Portfolio Manager, Programme Office, Wiltshire Council Lisa Dibsall, Principal Occupational Therapist, Adult Social Care Operations, Wiltshire Council
10:20 – 10:45	What's on the horizon for digital technologies? Professor Lars Sundstrom, Director of Enterprise, West of England AHSN
10:45 – 11:00	Solving the riddle of procurring innovation Gold sponsor: Alex Abbot, Chief Information Officer, LumiraDX
11:00 – 11:45	Exhibition hall viewing (inc. refreshments)
	Exhibition hall / 1:1 area	Workshop 1 (Plenary area)	Workshop 2 (Box 5+6)	Workshop 3 (Box 7+8)
11:45 -12:45	Exhibition hall & 1:1 networking area open	Digital Innovation in practice: Examples from West of England area The psychology of technology adoption: A discussion and hands on workshop Dr Mike Taylor and the Connecting Care team Every Strand of Connected Data Helps  Delivering information to nine partner agencies Kevin Marshall and Lisa Dibsall, Wiltshire Council and the Single View team	The DataWell experience on the importance of health information exchange in improving health and care Led by our Gold Sponsor Alex Abbot ,CIO, LumiraDX; Gary Leeming, Director of Informatics, Greater Manchester AHSN	Thinking about health economic evidence when evaluating digital technologies Dr Charles Lowe, Digital Health and Care Alliance and Elisabeth Adams, Aquarius Population Health

THE DIGITAL ART OF THE POSSIBLE

AGENDA

Afternoon session

12:45 – 13:45 Lunch and networking (Exhibition hall open)
Plenary area
13:45 – 14:35 University Hospitals Bristol: Digital journey and plans for the future Adam Dangoor, Chief Clinical Information Officer, University Hospitals Bristol, Global Digital Exemplar
Oxford University Hospitals: Digital journey and plans for the future John Skinner, Director of IM&T, Oxford University Hospitals Global Digital Exemplar
	Exhibition hall / 1:1 area	Workshop 4 (Plenary area)	Workshop 5 (Box 5+6)	Workshop 6 (Box 7+8)	(Box 11+12)
14:40 – 15:40	Exhibition hall & 1:1 networking area open	Digital healthcare revolution: Evaluation matters West of England AHSN Evaluation Team (2hrs)	Understanding the approach to information sharing Phil Stradling and Emma Harris, NHS England Apps Update - regulation, evaluation and a unified voice Dr. Indra Joshi, National Clinical Lead, Digital Experience	Encouraging citizens to engage with digital technology, some practical examples Lars Sundstrom, West of England AHSN; Barney Smith, Bristol is Open; Damian Gardner-Thorpe, Digital Algorithms; Neil Lovell, Cyber Media Solutions	West of England Chief Clinical Information Officer network meeting (By invitation only)
15:45 – 16:45	Refreshments available		Understanding the approach to information sharing Phil Stradling and Emma Harris, NHS England Apps Update - regulation, evaluation and a unified voice Dr. Indra Joshi, National Clinical Lead, Digital Experience	Workshop 7 (Box 7+8) Implementing digital solutions Quality Improvement tips and techniques Dave Evans, West of England AHSN Academy
16:45 – 17:00 Venue closes					